

Jeffrey (Jeff) Lynn Lowrance

Curriculum vitae

- ◆ Born in Mooresville, NC January 20, 1951
- ◆ 1973 cum laude graduate of Davidson College
- ◆ Graduated in 1977 from Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, VA
- ◆ Served three pastorates in the Appalachian Mountains: Lansing, NC; Lenoir, NC; Tazewell, VA
- ◆ Installed as pastor of the historic Hopewell Presbyterian Church on July 15, 1993
- ◆ Served on the Board of Directors of Hugh Torance House and Store (president); Historic Latta Plantation House (treasurer); Catawba Valley Scottish Society (past president)
- ◆ Served as chaplain of the annual Loch Norman Highland Games
- ◆ Has served on ad hoc groups for the Town of Huntersville concerning open space, the expansion of waste treatment facilities and the preservation of historic Beatties Ford Road
- ◆ Has lead efforts to locate and preserve slave cemeteries in Mecklenburg County through an organization call The Comprehensive Genealogical Services
- ◆ Instrumental in efforts to:
 - a. Restore the Cowan's Ford Monument at the intersection of Highway #73 and Beatties Ford Road
 - b. Return the grave marker of Revolutionary War hero Francis Bradley from McDowell County, NC
 - c. Bring back to North Carolina the wallet of General William Lee Davidson from the Archives in Great Britain
 - d. Rebuild the Rural Hill Marker demolished in a traffic accident at the intersection of Neck Road and Beatties Ford Road
- ◆ Performed the research that led to the use of historic names for two new schools on Beatties Ford Road
- ◆ Has had articles published in: Presbyterian Survey Magazine, Blue Ridge Country magazine, The Charlotte Observer (newspaper) and the book Remembering Your Story
- ◆ Wife, Anne and daughters, Claire (22) and Erin (19)
- ◆ Deceased May 28, 2007

Source: Hopewell Presbyterian Church